

The Vac Wrap Edition One

Welcome to our first edition of The Vac Wrap. A snap shot of the fun we had over the last two weeks!

With up and down weather, we had to make a couple of last-minute adjustments but overall there was positive feedback all round

To help us to continue to provide a program that the kids want to come to we ask for them to Rate Their Day at the end of each main event...

Here are the results....

'Rate My Day' Tally Chart

This chart shows which activities children enjoyed and which ones they didn't based on their face response. This process enables children to have a voice and in turn informs our future Vac Care planning.

Thankyou, thankyou, thankyou to those families that contributed to our Market Day by bringing in a plate of food. We were blown away by your generosity. The children enjoyed coming up with a business plan including a business name, what their food was worth and even a roster so they could share the duties of shopping and cooking (so much learning on top of all the amazing food to eat!)

Due to potential storms The Amazing Race-Botanic Gardens was postponed until April. Families that were previously booked in for that excursion will have first priority next time we go.

We would love your feedback too
